Democratic Convention.

The Democracy of this county will hold a Convention for the appointment of delegates to the State Convention, on county court day, in February.

The Calico Candidate for President.

The Radical party, just now, are in trouble and tribulation, and are hoping against hope, and concocting all manner of schemes to continue in power. As a party, none has ever existed in this country as unscrupulous or as determined at every cost, by deception and chicanery, backbitting and slandering, persecution and tyranny to steal from the people their liberties.

The last move on the political checker-board was made by a portion of this janus-faced squad at New York city. A large number of the bondholders and dry-goods merchants there, held a mass-meeting at Cooper Institute, and nominated Gen. Grant for President of the United States. This meeting was made up of men, who represent the so-called decency of the Radical society, and considering themselves somewhat better than other men, (after the manner of the old Pharisees,) have, in their opinion forestalled the political world by as- good brick walls. It is substantially serting in a few resolutions, of no put up, and will have an existence extraordinary merit, that U.S. Grant should be President. Wonderful men. these, and a wonderful meeting. They gathered there as bummers gath eraround a whiskey barrel-or like the famished, wooden-legged soldiers of old Fallstaff, looking anxiously for the Architect, and Carpenter & Bros., the Covington train, but, by some a mug of "nalf-and-half." They were of Cynthiana, were the contractors magicart, she was soon transfered to bondholders, and as such, their coun- and builders. It cost 21,650 dollars, the cars bound for this city. And is tenances indicated, that like old Shylock, they all hoped to get their pound of flesh, (or their gold on bonds) through their friend, (provided they can elect him,) Gen. Grant.

But he don't suit the people, for he er he may be-and their hearts are burning brilliantly.
